

2009 Camp Themes “Summer Spectacular”

June 15 – June 19
“Make Your Own...”

From tie-dyeing t-shirts to making paper, we’ll use our creative side to make things we can use every day.

June 22– June 26
“Green in Greensboro”

Discover easy and fun ways to have less of an impact on the environment and get greener!

June 29 – July 2
“Grow Your Own...”

There’s something satisfying about growing your own food. Learn how to be a master gardener and take some seedlings home!

July 6 – July 10
“Drama Kings and Queens”

Ever think you could be on American Idol? Is your Shakespeare polished? Come to camp to sharpen your chops!

July 13 – July 17
“Pioneer Days”

We’ll have fun learning what it was really like living in pioneer days on the Oregon Trail!

Counselors In Training

A volunteer program for 13-18 year olds to learn the basics of camp counseling. CIT’s help with program planning, assisting with activities and more. Applications and detailed information is available at www.burmilpark.org under day camps or by calling 373-3805. Applications for the CIT program must be received by April 10th, 2009.

Once registered, parents and campers are invited to attend an orientation session to meet camp counselors and find out details on the summer’s events.

July 20 – July 24
“Be Prepared...”

Lifeguards, EMTs and others will teach us how to be prepared for emergencies and how to keep safe.

July 27– July 31
“Mad Science”

Break out your Bunson burners for the kooky week of cool, safe, and fun science activities.

Aug. 3 – Aug. 7
“Under the Sea”

Water covers more than 70% of the planet, yet little is known about its inhabitants. Explore the depths and discover some of nature’s oddities!

Aug. 10 – Aug. 14
“Off The Wall...”

From Creepy Crafts to Wildlife Weirdoes, we’ll spend this week stretching our wacky muscles and experiencing all things odd.

Aug. 17 – Aug. 21
“So Long Summer”

We’ll celebrate the end of summer with a week full of games, prizes, and activities to say good-bye to summer.

Dates of Camp: June 15 -August 21

You can register for any number of weeks.

Time: 7:30 am to 6 pm

Campers must be picked up no later than 6 pm.

A late charge of $10 will be charged for every fifteen minutes thereafter.

Ages: 5-12 years of age, (5 year olds must have attended kindergarten)

Number of Campers: 60 campers per week (Increased by 10 campers from last year!)

Camp Staff: Camp Counselors are chosen based on their experience working with children. All counselors are CPR/First Aid certified. The ratio of counselors to campers is 1:12.

Golf, Swimming & Tennis Lessons

In addition to regular camp activities, you have the choice to sign your child up for Golf, Swimming and/or Tennis Lessons. These lessons will take place at Bur-Mil Park during camp hours. If your child is taking swimming lessons and not starting out as a beginner, please plan to attend one of the swim tests being held on May 26 and 28. Golf and Tennis lessons cost $25 per week for two one-hour lessons.

NEW for 2009! - Karate Lessons

We are pleased to be partnering with the Mike Carr Karate School to offer this new program for 2009. These introductory self defense classes focus on hand/eye coordination, tactics for dealing with bullies and in introduction to Keno, the Japanese art of sword-fighting (with foam swords). $15 per week for two one hour-long sessions.

How to Register
